1. CUHK Info Day 2025 本科入學資訊日

The CUHK Info Day 2025 welcomed nearly 60,000 visitors on 11th October. We were delighted to meet and greet students, parents, and secondary school teachers at our booth located at the University Mall. Thanks to the warm and engaging introductions by our passionate student ambassadors, visitors gained a deeper understanding of our entrepreneurial spirit with social responsibility, as well as the vibrant and creative life at our College. A big round of applause to our amazing Sunnies for their hospitality, energy, and enthusiasm!

Over 45 participants joined our guided tours to explore the key learning and recreational facilities across our College campus. They were impressed by the stunning view from the Terrace of Dreams and the comprehensive facilities in the all-in-one building. The c!ab convenors hosted a Mandala Fan Painting Workshop for the visitors, turning the space into a hub of creativity and vibrant artwork. It was heart-warming to see so many smiling faces, and we look forward to welcoming them again soon at CUHK.

3. The first Round Table Dinner (Term 1) 第一場書院圓桌晚宴 (上學期)

The first College Round Table Dinner was held on 9th Oct at the College Staff Canteen. We were grateful to have Prof. Anthony T.C. Chan (陳德章教授), College Master, Prof. Joan Z. Zuo (左中教授), Associate Master, and Prof. Delon Y.S. Hsueh (薛育昇教授), College Member, for hosting the dinner.

This session brought together the College students and members from different countries to spend a pleasant evening exchanging ideas with each other. Prof. Chan shared his personal journey of leaving his hometown to study abroad. He emphasized the importance of international experiences in personal growth and global understanding. Prof. Zuo introduced upcoming College activities designed to foster cultural exchange, and she highlighted that non-local students are encouraged to participate actively, providing valuable opportunities for international students to connect with local peers and integrate into the College life. Prof. Hsueh reflected on his own feelings upon arriving at the College, expressing hopes that students will fully enjoy their college life before transitioning to their future careers. In addition, students also had opportunities to make suggestions to the College during the dinner.

4. Mingling Dinner with Residents (English Session) 宿舍聚餐 (英語)

Residents gathered for a delightful evening at the Mingling Dinner (English Session) held on 8th Oct 2025 (Wed), where local and non-local students came together to share stories, laughter, and great food.

Professor Joan Z. Zuo (左中教授), Warden of East Block, and Professor Kong-pang Pun (潘江鵬教授), Warden of West Block, shared inspiring messages that encouraged residents to embrace hostel life. Ms. Yolinda C.Y. Wong (黃翠欣女士), College Secretary, appreciated the positive feedback from students and shared warm reminders on scam prevention.

The event fostered meaningful connections across cultures and backgrounds and created a warm and inclusive atmosphere. Participants enjoyed learning fun facts about the hostel and wardens through an interactive pop quiz, with winners receiving treats from the Resident Association's tuck shop.

5. Mid-autumn Festival Celebration at Student Hostels

The Mid-Autumn Festival Celebration at the student hostels brought a cheerful cultural evening for residents, thanks to the thoughtful efforts of our Resident Tutors.

Students gathered to enjoy mooncake sharing, engage in a lively quiz game exploring Mid-Autumn traditions across different regions, and take part in classic lantern riddles—a beloved tradition that sparked curiosity and laughter.

A highlight of the evening was the DIY lantern workshop, where residents crafted their own lanterns to celebrate the festival in a personal and creative way. It also allowed participants to make new friends while embracing the spirit of the season. Our heartfelt thanks again to Resident Tutors for such a heart-warming night for everyone.

6. Organic Rooftop Farming – Sowing Day

The Organic Rooftop Farming – Sowing Day was successfully held on 10th Oct 2025 (Fri) with over 30 enthusiastic student farmers under the guidance of Professor Kwai-cheong Chau (鄒桂昌教授), member of College Campus Environment Committee.

Participants learned the fundamentals of sustainable farming, including its vital role in food security and environmental protection. Students enjoyed hands-on practice in sowing and watering seedlings of tomatoes, cherry tomatoes, and pumpkins. They will help with removing weeds and adding fertilizers in the later stage.

Many student farmers joined out of their love for nature, ecology, and the calming rhythm of plant life. The rooftop farming initiative not only promotes sustainable living but also connects like-minded students and enhances their well-being.

We look forward to a fruitful harvest and sharing the joy with all College students! Our heartfelt thanks to all who sowed the seeds of a greener future!
